The Common Goals of Michigan Education, Dept. of Ed. Sept. 1971	The common goals of education are grouped into three principal areas: 1) citizenship and morality which sets out the criteria which schools must meet in developing mature and responsible citizens; 2) democracy and equal opportunity which deals with conditions necessary for a successful process of school operation; and 3) student learning which specifies desired outcomes for each person who is a product of our educational system.
	In order to accomplish the intention of the state board to insure broad participation in developing objectives and methods related to common goals, the state board has directed the superintendent of public instruction to request the council on elementary and secondary education to participate in the formulation of guidelines for the development of objectives. Additionally, the state board of education has directed the superintendent to establish 13 commissions, one for each level of elementary and secondary instruction, to assist in defining the objectives appropriate to each level.	supt. of pub. instr			X

All contracts with teachers will be in writing and signed by a majority of the board in behalf of the district; or by the president and secretary, or by the superintendent of schools. The contracts specify the wages agreed upon and in primary school districts will require the teacher to keep a correct list of the pupils, the grading and age of each, the number of days each pupil is present, the aggregate attendance and percentage of attendance and to file it with the superintendent of the intermediate district. No teacher will be entitled to receive his last payment for the school year until the report is filed. M.R.E. 361 (1956, 1959, 1962, 1966)	Criteria - The state board of education will take into account whether or not the following factors exist in the district. 1) The assessed value per PU in ADA is less than $1500. 2) The adjusted assessed valuation, as determined by the EARC, per PU in ADA is less than $4500. 3) The total indebtedness including bonds and orders not paid for want of funds exceeds 45% of the total assessed valuation of 15% of the adjusted assessed value of all taxable property therein as determined by the EARC. 4) Total local effort will exceed the effort exerted by at least 75% of the school districts maintaining classified secondary schools.	State Board of Educ.	X
124.28 (1959, 1961, 1971)	When the properties of any district are made up to the extent of at least 20% in value of property which is exempt from local taxation because taxes thereon are paid to the state and the district will annually receive a refund from gross earnings taxes in the amount that would be produced by a tax on this exempt property at the current tax rate for school purposes in the district. For the purpose of determining the amount of this refund, the value of exempt property will be set at 30% of its full and true value and except that in no case will the assessed value of this exempt property exceed an amount as when added to the value of all property in the district exceed $3000 per resident PU.	School District	X
	No school district qualifying for a refund under this section will receive more money than would be produced by a tax rate of 16 mills applied to the railroad property assessed at 30% of its full value as reported by the department of public service.	School District	X
	To determine the applicability of this section to any district, the valuation of taxable property will be the 1969 adjusted value of property as determined by EARC, and the valuation of exempt property will be the full value of exempt property. The eligibility of a school district under this section is determined by adding the adjusted taxable valuation of the taxable property as determined by EARC to the full value of the exempt property, then by dividing the amount of the exempt property by the total of such taxable property and exempt property. If the result is 20% or more the school district is eligible, otherwise not.	EARC	X
124.215 (1971) Note 126.021	In addition to the regular foundation aid payments, there will be paid from the appropriation for foundation aid to any district whose schools are attended by children residing on nontaxable land under the control of the armed forces, an amount equal to the number of PU times the dollar amount derived by dividing the total levy of the district by the number of resident PU in ADM. Statutes 125. 12 (1959, 1963, 1967, 1969, 1971)	A superintendent, principal, supervision and classroom teacher and any other professional employee required to hold a certificate from the state department is considered a teacher for purposes of the section.
	School boards will hire or dismiss teachers at duly called meetings. If the teacher is related to a school board member, then the school board must approve the contract by a unanimous vote. Contracts for teaching can be made only with qualified teachers. The contract specifies the yearly wages and the general assignment of the teacher. No teacher will be required to reside within the employing school district as a condition to teaching employment.	School Boards	X
	The first and second years of a teacher's first teaching experience in Minnesota is a probationary period of employment. During the probationary period any annual contract with the teacher may or may not be renewed as the school boards sees fit. The school board must give notice to any teacher whose contract it declines to renew for the following year before 4/1.	School Board	X
	If the teacher requests reasons for the board's decision, the board will give its reasons in writing, including a statement that appropriate supervision was furnished describing the nature and extent of the supervision.	School Board	X
	A teacher who has completed his probationary period in any school district, and who has not been discharged or advised of a refusal to renew, will have a continuing contract with the district. Thereafter, the teacher's contract will remain in full force and effect until terminated by a majority roll call vote of the full membership of the board. Contracts for teachers to be retired will be submitted no later than 3/20, preceding the school year to which they apply. Before a teacher's contract is terminated by the board, the board will notify the teacher in writing and state its ground for the proposed termination together with the statement that the teacher may request a hearing within two weeks.	School Board	X
	A board may provide by rule that its teachers will be retired at age 65.	School Board				X
	A continuing contract may be terminated at the close of the school year upon any of the following grounds: a) Inefficiency. b) Neglect of duty or persistent violation of school laws, rules, regulations, or directives. c) Conduct unbecoming a teacher which materially impairs his educational effectiveness. d)Other good and sufficient grounds rendering the teacher unfit to perform his duties.

	A contract will not be terminated on one of the specified grounds unless the teacher will have failed to correct the deficiency after being given written notice of the specific items of complaint and reasonable time to remedy them.
	All evaluations and files within a school district relating to each individual teacher will be available during regular school business hours to a teacher upon written request. The teacher will have the right to reproduce any of its contents and submit written information in response to any material contained therein.
	A teacher afflicted with TB, mental illness, drug or alcoholic addiction or other serious incapacity will be subject to temporary suspension while he is suffering from that disability. Such action will be taken only upon evidence that suspension is required from a physician who has examined the teacher. During the leave of absence the teacher will be paid sick leave benefits by the district up to the amount of his unused accumulated sick leave, and after it is exhausted, the district may pay him additional benefits. The teacher will be reinstated to his position upon evidence that he has made sufficient recovery and is capable of performing his duties in a proper manner. After 12 months of suspension, a teacher's failure to qualify for reinstatement may be a ground for discharge.
	A school board may discharge a continuing contract teacher effective immediately, upon any of the following grounds: a) Immoral conduct, insubordination or conviction of a felony. b) Conduct unbecoming a teacher which requires his immediate removal. c) Failure without justifiable cause to teach without first securing the written release of the school board. d) Gross inefficiency which the teacher failed to correct after reasonable written notice. e) Willful neglect of duty. f) Continuing physical or rental disability subsequent to a 12 months leave of absence and inability to qualify for reinstatement.	School Board				X
	Prior to discharging a teacher the board will notify the teacher in writing and state its ground for the proposed discharge in reasonable detail. The teacher may request a hearing before final action is taken.	School Board	X
	At the hearing the board and the teacher may be represented by counsel. The board will present evident to sustain the grounds for termination or discharge and dismissal of the teacher will be based upon substantial and competent evidence in the record. If the board orders termination of a continuing contract or discharge of a teacher, its decision will include findings of fact based upon competent evidence in the record. 275.09 (1961)	Rate of Tax 1) State purposes - there will be levied annually on each dollar of taxable property for state purposes taxes in such amounts as is levied by the legislature. 2) County purposes - In any county with over 100,000 inhabitants the rate of tax for general revenue purposes will not exceed five mills. In any county with less than 100,000 inhabitants the rate of tax for general revenue purposes will not exceed 15 mills, unless this maximum mill levy will not raise the amount specified for each county of less than 30,000 according to the following a) in any county with less than 10,000 inhabitants $125,000; b) between 10,000 - 20,000 , $150,000 c) 20-30,000; $160,000. In these circumstances the county board may levy enough to raise these sums.	County Board				X
	3) Town purposes - levied on each dollar of taxable property, except such as is by law otherwise taxable, an amount voted at a town meeting not to exceed 10 mills in town of over 7,000, exclusive of levies for roads, bridges, and the poor. The rate is 5 mills in town with a taxable valuation of over $100,000 and no more than $350 for towns with a valuation of less than $100,000. 275.125 (1971)	Tax Levy, School Districts Except as otherwise provided in this section, each school district in the state will levy a tax for all general and special school purposes which will yield not more than an amount equal to 30 mills times the adjusted assessed valuation of the district for the year prior to the year in which the levy is made. Exceptions: 1) Any district whose foundation aid for the 1972-73 school year will be computed pursuant to 124.212, will levy in 1971 a tax which will yield not more than 30 mills times the ratio of the sum of the districts 1970-71 adjusted maintenance cost per PU in ADM and $87 per PU in ADM divided $750 times the 1970 adjusted assessed valuation of the district. Thus: example district spent $590 per pupil unit in 1970-71. $\frac{590 + 87}{750} \times .03 = \frac{677 \times .03}{750} = .02708$ or 27.08 mills local share. 2) Any district whose foundation aid for 1972-73 is computed by 124.212 will levy in 1972 a tax which will yield not more than 30 mills times the ratio of the sum of the 1970-71 adjusted maintenance cost in ADM and $125 per PU in ADM divided by $750 times the 1971 adjusted assessed valuation of the district.

A district located in a city of the first class may not qualify for an additional levy that exceeds 1.5 mills times the adjusted assessed valuation of the district.	School District				X
	4) For purposes of the 1972 levy collectible in 1973 any district which qualified for an additional levy under (3), and in which the sum of that additional amount and $750 is greater than $788 may levy an amount per PU which is equal to or less than $38 per PU plus the difference between that sum and $788 per PU. The commissioner of education must authorize the increase and it may not exceed .5 mills in a first class city and 1.5 mills in any other district times the 1970 adjusted assessed valuation.	School District Com. of Educ.				X may petition X Subject to legal limit
	7) If this addition is not enough to raise the adjusted maintenance cost by $42, the district may petition the commissioner of education for authority to issue bonds sufficient to meet the deficiency. A district may not be authorized an additional levy under this method and the levy in (6). Any district which levies an amount which is greater than that allowed will receive an amount of foundation aid from the state equal to 1/2 of the excess in the levy. If the levy is found to be excessive by the tax court or the EARC will not be compensated for in the next levy of the district. The department of public welfare is directed to furnish to the department of education that information concerning children from AFDC which is necessary to calculate pupil units. 5) Where the total pupil units of a district are used as a multiplier in determining foundation aids and spending and levy limitations and where the actual number of pupil units has decreased from the prior year, the number of pupil units (PU) for the district will equal the average of actual pupil units for the prior and current years. Membership means the number of pupils on the current roll of the school, counted from the date of entry until withdrawal A withdrawal includes those students who have left school, are officially excused, or have been absent from school for 15 consecutive days without an excuse. Average daily membership (ADM) equals the sum for all pupils of the number of days of the school year each pupil is enrolled in the district's schools divided by the number of days that school is in session. $\text{ADM} = \frac{\text{Total number of pupil days}}{\text{Number of School Days.}}$ ADM of a pupil enrolled on a shared time basis equals the ratio of the total minutes for which the pupil is enrolled and the minimum minutes required during the year for a regularly enrolled pupil. 124.35 (1959)	Financial aid to distressed districts shall be governed by the provisions of the maximum school aid law.
124.37 (1959)	Policy and Purpose. The rates of increase in school population shifts & economic changes in recent years and anticipated in future years have required and will require large expenditures for performing the duty of the state and its subdivisions to provide a general & uniform system of public schools; the state policy has been to require these school costs to be borne primarily by the local subdivisions. In most instances the local subdivisions have been able to provide the required funds by local taxation as supplemented by state aids. There are, however, exceptional cases due to local conditions where the costs will exceed the maximum which the local taxpoyers can be reasonably expected to bear. In some districts having several issues outstanding, debt service tax levy requirements are excessive for some years because of heavy bond principle payments accumulating in some of the years due to overlapping or short-term issues. The policy purpose of sections 124.36 to 124.47 is to utilize the credit of the state & to a limited degree to relieve those school districts where the maximum effort by the district is inadequate to provide the necessary moneys.

Maximum effort debt service levy -- a levy's total dollar amount computed as 6.3 mills on the market value; except that the maximum effort debt service levy varies with when the school district received a capital loan from the state.
124.40 (1959, 1963, 1967)	There is appropriated to the maximum effort school loan fund the net proceeds of sale of any state school loan bonds authorized to be issued under 124.46 and all income received from the investment of the proceeds.

ndbook r Accredi- tion (1973) p. 2	The basic objective of classification and accreditation is to recognize and develop the educational programs of the public schools. The public school systems are classified "AA," or "AAA" depending upon the quantity and quality of their educational programs.
	The minimum educational program for classification and accreditation is described as class AA and is the minimum which should be provided in the state. As a matter of encouragement to local schools in providing more than the minimum program "Class AAA" programs are described. There are no financial inducements for meeting classification standards. Schools not attaining all of the goals or standards for one of the classifications will be advised accordingly and may either be re-classified, or removed from the classified list, depending upon progress made toward eliminating the advisements.
	Accreditation refers to the approval of a school system by the SDE to receive either "AA" or "AAA" classification. Accreditation is on the basis of both subjective and objective standards. Class AA standards represent the minimum requirement for accreditation.
	The areas covered in the classification process include:
p. 8	I. Standards to Be Met by All Classified and Accredited School Districts
	1. Philosophy, Goals and Objectives —

The policies shall be readily available to school district patrons. The policies should stimulate professional growth of the school system personnel and encourage representative democracy in school administration.
	3. Administration —
	The superintendent of schools shall be the chief executive officer of the board of education and the administrative head of the district.
	4. Budget and Financial Accounting —
	Each school district shall annually develop an educational plan and a budget of anticpated "income and expenditure."

In schools enrolling less than 200, the librarian or teacher-librarian will have a minimum of 6 semester hours of library science exclusive of courses in audio-visual aids and children's literature and will devote at least 1/3 of her time to library operation.

In schools enrolling between 200-500 students, the librarian will have a minimum of 10 semester hours of library science and will devote at least 1/2 of time to library operation.

In schools enrolling 500 students, the librarian will have a minimum of 18 semester hours of library science and will devote full-time to library operation.

Beyond the 10 hour requirement, courses in audio-visual aids and children's literature may be counted. There will be adequate non-student clerical assistance to allow the librarian to function professionally.

Classification and cataloguing of the library collection will include a shelf list, an alphabetically arranged card catalogue, and classification by the Dewey Decimal System.

The school will maintain a professional library to keep staff abreast of current trends and research findings in education.

The basic program cost of a school district is computed by adding the total staffing cost of the school district to the supportive cost for the school district. Basic Program Cost= Total Staffing Cost & Supportive Cost.

The number of staff positions to which the school district is entitled is determined by dividing the school district's 40 day membership by the divisor in column 2 of schedule, 77-6-18.4. $\text{No. of Staff Positions} = \frac{\text{40-Day Membership}}{\text{Divisor in Column 2, Schedule 1}}$
The resulting quotient is the entitlement for each category unless a maximum is stated. The number of teachers to which the district is entitled is determined from Column 2, Schedule 2, 77-6-18.5.

For example: District A reports a 40 day membership of 400. The "aide" category divisor is 200 (found in Column 2, Schedule 1); thus District A is entitled to $\frac{400}{200}=2$ aides, absent a maximum in Column 3.

The total staffing cost of the school district is determined by multiplying the number of staff positions for each category by the category appropriation unit in Column 4, Schedule 1. Total Staffing Cost = No. of Staff Positions x Category Appropriation Unit, Column 4, Schedule 1.

For example: 2 staff aides x appropriation unit = staff cost. The costs of all 12 categories are then added.

77-6-18.3 (1969)

The supportive cost of the district is determined by multiplying the total staffing cost by 25%. Supportive Cost=(25%) Total Staffing Cost.

77-6-18.5	Schedule 2, located in the statute, indicates the number of teachers to which a district is entitled on the basis of its 40-day membership. The range includes 11.095 teachers for 75 students up to 6,048.387 for 150,000 students.
77-6-19 (1969, 1971, 1972)	Prior to March 15 of each year each local school board submits to the chief of the public school finance division a projection of 40-day membership of its school district for the upcoming year. If the school board fails to do this, the chief estimates the school district's 40-day membership. The chief then computes the basic program cost and a basic program distribution to each school district and after the receipt of the 40-day average daily membership certification required by 12/15 in 77-6-14, the chief recomputes the basic program requirement to establish an adjusted state program distribution.	loc. sch. board chief of the pub. fin. div. 77-6-19.4 (1972, 1973)	There is a distribution called "qualification entitlements" which are provided to school districts in recognition of a cost factor brought about by a greater than average number of teachers earning advanced degrees (master's or higher). Distribution is limited to regular teachers employed within the operational budget for general school purposes. The qualification distribution is determined by multiplying the number of classroom teachers with advanced degrees in excess of 5% above the state average (but not to exceed 5% above the state average) times $400. Qualification Distribution= $400 x No. of Teachers With Advanced Degrees in Excess of 5% Above the State Average. Starting with the 63rd fiscal year, only teachers with advanced degrees who are employed in the functional field of the degree will be counted. 			M	A	S&M	D	Sanctions for Non-Compliance
Guidelines for Rights and Responsibilities* (pp. 20-22)	EXTRACURRICULAR ACTIVITIES AND CLUBS Registration of Student Groups Most schools require student organizations to register with the school in order to obtain available school funds and the use of school facilities. The school must register any group organized for a purpose not prohibited by law, if the group submits a list of members designated as contacts, its constitution and bylaws, and the constitution and bylaws of any off-campus organization with which it is affiliated (NAACP v. Button, 371 U.S. 415, 444-45; 9 L. ed. 405; 83 Sup. Ct. 328). The school may not require a student group to submit a membership list as a requirement for becoming or remaining registered (NAACP v. Alabama, 367 U.S. 449, 462). A school does not refuse registration to any student group solely because it is affiliated with an off-campus organization. A mechanism should be developed for student-faculty-administration cooperation in the registration and regulation of student organizations. Before a decision is reached to ban, discontinue, or discipline a student group, that group deserves a hearing with due process. Interfering with school discipline, failing to abide by the terms under which the group was approved, and presenting a clear threat to the health or safety of members of the school community, are valid reasons for disciplinary action. Student organizations should not restrict membership on the basis of race, sex, national origin, or any other arbitrary criteria. They may establish reasonable membership criteria if these are equally applied to all applicants; for example, requiring all French Club members to speak French. Student groups have the responsibility to make clear to the public that their programs do not necessarily reflect the views of the institution as a whole. Use of the school name when participating in a public demonstration is improper unless permission has been granted by the principal or his designated official. Student groups also have the responsibility to recognize that persons who disagree with their views and programs have the right to choose for themselves whether to listen to the group's point of view, and must not be coerced or harassed into doing so. Use of School Facilities It is recommended that boards of education encourage suggestions about the use of school facilities from students, faculty and staff, and community groups affected by these decisions. Basic considerations include regulations and procedures pertaining to adequate scheduling of facilities, including advance requests and charges, priority of requests, and care and maintenance. The regulations should be flexible enough to provide for the differing needs of groups. Advisors If a student organization decides or is required to have an advisor, the function of the advisor is to counsel, not to control or censor, and he should not be held responsible for the actions of the student group if it rejects his counsel. Exclusion from Extracurricular Activities There must be a legal basis for curtailing full participation in extracurricular activities (Matter of Myers, 9 Ed. Dept. Rep. 9). The extent of disciplinary exclusion must be neither arbitrary, capricious, nor unreasonable (Matter of Walczyk, 8 Ed. Dept. Rep. 154). A student may not be prohibited from participation in extracurricular activities or school athletics because of his dress or appearance, unless it constitutes a danger to health or safety, or prevents his full participation by physically impairing his ability to perform (Matter of Vartuli, 10 Ed. Dept. Rep. ; Decision No. 8297, dated June 21, 1971). Participation in all the activities of the school must not be restricted for a particular student solely because of marriage, pregnancy, or parenthood (Johnson v. Board of Education of the Borough of Paulsboro, U.S.D.C.A. Docket No. 172-70; Bentley v. Board of Education of Harrodsburg, 383 SW 2d 677). Participation in graduation ceremonies may not be denied solely because of pregnancy (Matter of Murphy, 11 Ed. Dept. Rep. ; Decision No. 8409 dated January 31, 1972). *[Except for those things specifically noted as statutory or case law, this publication is essentially advisory.]

Policy Statement by St. Bd. of Ed. 10/5/72	State accreditation by public school administrative units rather than individual schools is hereby sanctioned.
State Accreditation Curriculum/ Admins. Series, Dept. of Pub. Instr No. 454, 1973, p. 9	The state superintendent of public instruction will establish procedures and standards and will provide such direction, guidelines and instruments as may be necessary to implement a program of administrative unit accreditation.	St. Sup. of Pub. Instr.			X
	Steps in the Accreditation Process -
	1) A comprehensive plan for education embracing all areas of the school system's program is developed and approved by the local board of education.	Local Bd. of Ed.			X
Procedures & Criteria Publication #469 (1974)	2) An abstract of the plan is submitted to the state superintendent, including the major findings in the areas of objectives, status, strategies, and a plan for evaluation.	St. Sup. of Pub. Instr.			X
	3) The department of public instruction reviews the plan and works with the unit for approximately a school term in implementing it.	Dept. of Pub. Instr.			X
	4) If the department gives the plan its official approval within this year period, the administrative unit schools are accredited. Continued accreditation will be contingent upon the content of annual reports which the unit makes to its local board, a copy of which is reviewed by the state superintendent.	Dept. of Pub. Instr. Among the shifts of emphasis are: 1) The evaluation process is removed from its historic position of detailed isolation to the mainstream of the operational routines of instructional planning and management. 2) The focus is upon learning and behavioral outcomes for pupils rather than quantitative measures of material inputs and organizational structuring. 3) Accreditation embraces total county and administrative units rather than individual schools within units.

	children with special needs, with some children having a greater educational opportunity than others; that the labeling of children, and defining the needs of children within the boundaries of those labels, have had a stigmatizing effect and have caused service and education programs to be overly narrow and rigid, both in their content and their inclusion and exclusion policies.
	Section 2. The General Assembly of North Carolina hereby declares that the policy of the State is to ensure every child a fair and full opportunity to reach his full potential and that no child as defined in this act shall be excluded from service or education for any reason whatsoever.
	Section 3. The General Assembly of North Carolina further declares that the public policy of North Carolina is defined in greater detail to carry out the foregoing stated policies as follows:
	(a) The State shall provide for a comprehensive early childhood development program by emphasizing preventative and remedial measures designed to provide the services which will enable children to develop to the maximum level their physical, mental, social, and emotional potentials and to strengthen the role of the family as the first and most fundamental influence on child development.	State	X
	(b) The State shall develop a system of educational opportunities for all children with special needs and require the identification and evaluation of the needs of children and the adequacy of various education programs before placement of children, and shall provide for periodic evaluation of the benefits of programs to the individual child and the nature of the child's needs thereafter;	State	X		X
	(c) The State shall prevent denial of equal educational and service opportunity on the basis of national origin, sex, economic status, race, religion, and physical, mental, social or emotional handicap in the provision of services to any child;	State	X
	(d) It is recognized that children have a variety of characteristics and needs, all of which must be considered if the potential of each child is to be realized; that in order to accomplish this the State must develop a full range of service and education programs, and that a program must actually benefit a child or be designed to benefit a particular child in order to provide such child with appropriate educational and service opportunities.	State	X
	Section 4. The General Assembly of North Carolina finds that various studies and various programs have been undertaken and that tremendous public interest exists to seek ways of more effectively rendering a beneficial service to all of our children, and especially with children who have special needs.
	In this context the term "child with special needs" means any child who because of temporary or permanent disabilities arising from intellectual, sensory, emotional, physical, environmental factors, or other specified learning disability is inhibited from achieving his full potential; to include, but not limited to, the educable, trainable, profoundly, and functionally retarded, emotionally disturbed, learning disabled, the physically handicapped or other impairments including hospitalized, homebound, or pregnant, the deaf or hearing-impaired, the language or speech-impaired, the blind or visually-impaired, gifted and talented, autistic, dependent, abused, neglected, multiple-impaired, and socially maladjusted.

380 minutes per day (6 hours)

4. Suggested Time Allotments

The amount of time devoted to each of the disciplines will vary greatly from one grade to another. The amount of time devoted by each child to each of the disciplines will also vary according to that child's particular needs. Thus, it is impossible to set a specific time allotment. However, it is desirable that some guidelines do exist which the local district can use in determining its local daily program.

SUGGESTED TIME ALLOTMENTS

The following suggested time allotments are expressed in percentages. The recommended time allotments may be applied on a daily or weekly basis when preparing a daily schedule of classes and activities.

	Approximate Percentages
1. Primary grades (1-2-3)
a. Language arts or arts of communication (includes listening, speaking, composition, spelling, handwriting, reading, and literature)	45%
b. Social studies, science, music, arts, and crafts	30%
c. Physical education, health, health services	10%
d. Mathematics	15%
2. Intermediate grades (4-5-6)
a. Language arts (includes listening, speaking, composition, spelling, handwriting, reading, and literature)	35%
b. Social studies	15%
c. Music, arts, and crafts	15%
d. Physical education, health, health services, science	20%
e. Mathematics	15%

WEEKLY ALLOTMENT CHART

The weekly time allotment chart, following, may serve as a guideline in developing the daily or weekly lesson plan. Suggested time allotments are provided for two different lengths of school days. The school day refers to actual pupil-teacher contact. The school day for the teacher is established by the local district. Schools choosing the five-hour day for the primary and five and one-half hour day for the intermediate grades must provide 150 minutes of supervised planning time each week. Teachers must be free of pupil contact during this time. This supervision must be conducted by the administration. Under either of the two school day lengths, provisions should be made to free the teacher for a period of 30 to 60 minutes daily for preparation time. This can be accomplished by scheduling specialized teachers to such classes as music, physical education, and art.

The total minutes per week will not permit taking all of the maximum time allotments in all of the areas in any grade. Weekly time allotments are suggested for minutes of class instruction per week to permit imaginative and versatile planning for the daily program. Each subject area class need not meet daily. It may be more beneficial to meet for a longer period of time one day and then not meet at all the next for some activity in some of the subject areas.

It may be desirable to correlate some subjects such as science and social studies, especially at the primary level. Instruction in the library skills should be correlated with the subject areas which allow the skill to be practiced following exposure. Although time is allowed for instruction in the fine arts, music and art should be correlated with all subject areas. Health instruction can be correlated effectively with science or physical education. Care should be taken so that the length of the class period not become excessive, especially where subjects are correlated.

J. Upper Elementary Education

The educational environment designed for students in the upper elementary grades, whether referred to as the junior high or the middle school, must be unique to that particular situation. The needs of the students in that age category necessitate a program that differs from the self-contained elementary program or the departmentalized secondary program.

The program cannot be categorized as an elevated extension of the elementary program, nor as a sub-marginal extension of the secondary program. The instructional program must be designed to meet the emotional, social, physical, and academic needs of that age group regardless of the organizational structure.

The program must provide the scope of the secondary program and the continuity and security found in the regular elementary program. A variety of alternatives pertaining to course offerings and extra-curricular activities should be made available. It is imperative, however, that a great deal of correlation exists between the alternatives. Excessive fragmentation of experiences leads to stress on the part of the students.

The organizational structure should be designed to propagate the desired outcomes for which the program is designed. This structure should accommodate such options as team teaching, multi-age grouping, continuous progress, flexible scheduling, individual instruction, and the special services characteristic of a good educational program.

The instructional approach should encompass individual instruction, exploratory experiences, and other activities offering a great deal of student involvement in various sized groups.

1. Curriculum

Legally, students in grades one through eight are considered elementary students. Thus, grades 7-8 in the junior high or the middle school operate under the same rules and regulations governing the elementary curriculum.

Course offerings provided will vary with the facilities available and the degree of their utilization. Although it may be possible to utilize secondary facilities, one must be mindful not to consider the upper elementary curriculum as being a sub-marginal extension or an imitation of the secondary curriculum. The same must be kept in mind when elementary facilities are utilized. The curriculum offered should be indicative of the philosophy governing the organization of the program.

The following outline indicates both the course offerings required by law in grades 7 and 8 and those which could be offered as electives to broaden the program. The specific content for each course is indicated in either the course guide developed for that purpose or as found in A Guide For Curriculum Planning, K-12, 1970.

Subject	Suggested Grade Level	Length In Weeks/Year
Art	7-8	18-36
*Language Arts	7-8	36
Foreign Languages	7-8	36
Typewriting	7-8	36
*Physical Education	7-8	36
Home Economics	7-8	18-36
Industrial Arts	7-8	18
*Mathematics	7-8	36
Music	7-8	18-36
*Science	7-8	36
*Social Studies	7-8	36

*Required Courses

Required at least 1 semester during the two-year period; optionally offered for a full year.

Exploratory activities offered for 18 weeks in such areas as graphic communications, materials, technology, and power technology.

Class periods are to be from 40-60 minutes in length.

The students should have an opportunity to participate in as broad a program as possible. However, an appropriate amount of preparation time should be provided. Study time should be part of the classroom instruction. The practice of placing large numbers of students in a study hall or combining junior high and secondary study periods should be discouraged.

	E. Use of Teacher Aides The administrator is referred to the Guide to the Use of Teacher Aides in North Dakota Schools, published by the Department of Public Instruction in 1970 to serve as a guideline for the use of teacher aides in schools. The use of teacher aides should be encouraged for any sized classroom. However, the use of teacher aides in no way affects the maximum acceptable pupil-teacher ratio. Where administrators find that they have overloaded classrooms, it is highly recommended that aides be used in reducing the amount of work for the teachers in those specifically overloaded classrooms. F. Average Maximum Enrollment Acceptable Per Classroom for Classification Purposes Individual classrooms exceeding this ratio shall be provided with assistance in the form of specialists, released time, aides, etc. 1. One grade—30 pupils 2. Two grades—25 pupils 3. Three or more grades—20 pupils 4. Computation of the pupil-teacher ratio in any elementary school shall be accomplished as follows: a. All regular classroom teachers assigned to the school on a part or full-time basis shall be counted. b. Special teachers whose major responsibilities are in art, music, physical education, language arts, and other curriculum areas, shall be included in the computation on a full-time equivalency basis. c. All part-time regular or special teachers shall be computed on a fractional part or full-time equivalency. d. Superintendents, curriculum directors, supervisors, principals, librarians, guidance personnel, nurses, and other such administrative supervisory and professional service personnel shall be excluded from the computation. e. Special education teachers and pupils in classes for such children as the educable mentally retarded, the trainable mentally retarded, specific learning disabilities, and emotionally disturbed, the hearing impaired, and the visually impaired shall be excluded from the computation. f. INTRODUCTION

The Oregon Constitution authorizes the Legislative Assembly to provide by law for the establishment of a uniform and general system of common schools. (Article 8, Sec. 3).

The Legislative Assembly provides by law for the election of an SPI. (Art. 8, Sec. 1).

The State Board of Education consist of 7 members, appointed by the governor for 4 year terms, subject to confirmation by the Senate. (ORS 326.021). In making such appointments, the governor shall select from residents of Oregon one member from each congressional district and the remainder from the state at large. (ORS 326.021).

The State Board of Education has the duty to establish state standards for public, elementary and secondary schools, considering first the goals of modern education and the requirements of a sound comprehensive curriculum with particular emphasis on establishments of the highest practical scholarship standards, and in secondary schools, establishment of academic standards necessary to enable students to attend community colleges and institutions of higher education both within and without Oregon, and considering also the health, safety, and scholastic needs of the students, the population, climate, economy, and geography of the school districts and any other factors necessary to the maintenance of a modern and efficient school system (ORS 326.051).

The Department of Education functions under the direction and control of the State Board of Education. The Department of Education consists of the State Board of Education, the State Textbook Commission, such other agencies and officers as are added by law to the Department of Education; and the administrative organization and staffs required for the performance of the department's functions. (ORS 326.111).

The SPI acts as the administrative officer of the State Board of Education and as the executive head of one Department of Education (326.310).

The power to conduct education in Oregon squarely rests with the State Board of Education. It administers accreditation, textbook and curriculum standards, as well as certification requirements.

It recognizes that all children of the state are entitled to reasonably equal educational opportunities regardless of their place of residence or economic situation and recognizes that although the establishment of a school system is primarily a state function, that local school districts should be required to participate on a partnership basis in the payment of a reasonable portion of the cost of the minimum program. 53-7-21 (1973)	The number of weighted pupil units for each year will be the total of the units for each school district determined as follows:
	The number of units will be computed by adding the average daily attendance (ADA) and the average daily membership (ADM) and dividing by 2. For kindergarten add ADA and ADM and multiply by 2.5.
	Upon application by each school district, the state board of education will, in consultation with local school districts classify schools in each districts as necessarily existent small rural schools. These schools will receive special benefits in the form of a favorable pupil weighting. It is the intent of the legislature that extra weighted pupil units be provided only for schools which because of their isolation must be regarded as necessarily existent. Task Force on Financing Standards of Quality for Virginia Publ. Schools (July 1973)	Through consultation with the Office of the Attorney General, the Task Force determined that the following process must be followed in establishing and funding the Standards of Quality: 1) The Board of Education establishes the Standards of Quality. 2) The General Assembly may revise the Standards established by the Board. 3) The General Assembly must establish the cost of implementing the Standards of Quality.* 4) The General Assembly must establish the fair share of this cost to be borne by the local school divisions. 5) The General Assembly must fund the remaining portion of the cost. Also, the following guidelines are implicit in the Constitution: 1) The Standards of Quality must be realistic in relation to current educational practice. 2) The estimate of the cost of the Standards of Quality must be realistic in relation to current costs for education. 3) The local share of the cost of implementing the Standards of Quality must be based on local ability to pay.

* The funding procedures are to be consistent with the statutory provisions for the preparation and presentation of an Executive Budget by the Governor.

G.C. § 11990 1969	Short title This Chapter shall be known and may be cited as the "Nonpublic Elementary and Secondary Education Act".		X
G.C. § 11991 1969	Legislative finding declaration of policy It is hereby determined and declared as a matter of legislative finding: (1) That a crisis in elementary and secondary education exists in the Nation and in the territory involving (i) the new recognition of our intellectual and cultural resources as prime national assets and of the national imperative now to spur the maximum educational development of every young American's capacity; (ii) rapidly increasing costs occasioned by the rise in school population, consequent demands for more teachers and facilities, now but costly demands, in the endeavor for excelence, upon education generally' the general impact of inflation upon the economy; and the struggle of the territory, commonly with many other American communities to find sources by which to finance education, while also attempting to bear the mounting financial burden of the many other areas of modern governmental responsibility; (2) That nonpublic education in Guam today, as during past recent decades, bears the burden of educating approximately twenty percent of all elementary and secondary school pupils in the territory; that the requirements of the compulsory school attendance laws of the territory are fulfilled through nonpublic education; (3) That the elementary and secondary education of children is today recognized as a public welfare purpose; that non-public education, through providing instruction in secular subjects, makes an improtant contribution to the achieving of such public welfare purpose; that the governmental duty to support the achieving of public welfare purposes in education may be in part fulfilled through government's support of those purely secular educational objectives achieved through nonpublic education; (4) That freedom to choose nonpublic education meeting reasonable territorial standards, for a child is a fundamental parental liberty and a basic liberty and a basic right; (5) That the territory has the right and freedom, in the fulfillment of its duties, to enter into contracts for the purchase of needed services with persons or institutions whether public or nonpublic, sectarian or nonsectarian; (6) That, should a majority of parents of the present nonpublic school population desire to remove their children to the public school of Guam, an intolerable added financial burden to the public would result, as well as school stoppages and long-term derangement and impairment of education in Guam; that such hazard to the education of children may be substantially reduced and all education in the territory improved through the purchase herein provided of secular educational services from nonpublic schools in Guam. G.C. § 11875 1968	Findings and purpose The Legislature finds, that the rapid increase in the numbers of school age children in the Territory of Guam and the need for employment of additional teachers each school year results in an ever-increasing financial burden upon the government of Guam in meeting its obligation to maintain a modern system of public education; that the problem is made more acute by an increasing shortage of adequately trained local teachers with the result that it has become necessary to recruit such teachers from off-island; and that the government has thus far failed in tis efforts to induce adequate numbers of local students to seek a career in public education. Pursuant to these findings the Legislature therefore declares that it is the purpose of this Chapter to provide for an accelerated program for the training of local teachers in the University of Guam, and to thereby minimize the necessity for additional off-island recruitment.
